

Thank You Note Tips

TIP SHEET › WRITE THANK YOU NOTES TO BOOK TRUST

It is critical to our success that Book Trust donors see that their support is making a difference in a child's life. Plan to send thank you notes 2-3 times a year. We will send your notes to our donors!

Book Trust
789 Sherman Street
Suite 300A
Denver, CO 80203

Student prompts:

Tell us where you keep your books.

Why are your books special to you?

Non-fiction: what did you learn?

Fiction: who was your favorite character?

Draw a picture from a Book Trust book.

Teacher prompts:

Create a thank you video.

Share the impact Book Trust has had on your classroom and your teaching practice.

Share how Book Trust has impacted one of your students' families.

Student seasonal themes:

Fall

I fell in love with reading when _____.

Winter

A book that makes me warm inside on a cold day is _____ because _____.

Spring

I just grew into a great reader. Here's how: _____.

Summer

This summer I will read _____.

Student holiday themes:

Halloween

The scariest book I got was _____.

Thanksgiving

I am thankful for my books because _____.

Christmas

The best book I ever got was _____.

Valentines

I love reading because _____.

I love new books because _____.

St. Patrick's Day

I am lucky because _____.

Easter

I hopped into a good book. Here is what happened: _____.